ANXTnet

ANXTnet specialise in producing high level rich multi media and we content and printed media for the music and entertainment industry.

From bands and musicians to recording studios and venues ANXTnet work towards a unified resource for all kinds of people to get everything they need in one place and to the same standards you would expect from any other publisher, without all the bother.

Established in 2000 our designers and technicians are trained to help you get the most from your project. ANXTnet was setup with one aim, to cut out the over charging large companies and offer regular people high quality designs at a fair price, so whether you're looking for an online store to sell your merchandise or a simple web site to promote your brand, ANXTnet is here to cater to your needs.

We specialise in sites to promote bands but are versatile and can accommodate any style of web site you require, for examples please see our portfolio on web site design.

The only thing better then having a great idea is seeing it come to life. that's why at ANXTnet we listen to what you have to say and create exactly what you are looking for. our graphic design team work with the latest technology's to create cutting edge designs for the web and print. from banners and logos to posters and T-shirts. We can create any project you have in mind and either print in house or release the proofs to you to send on to a printer of your choice, although we doubt you will, just click here to view our price guide to printed media.

We here at ANXTnet believe that a logo is more than just a picture with your company's name on it, it represents your company and when people see it they will recognise it as your company. ANXTnet can create a unique branding for your product or service and will work with you throughout the design process. For more information please contact us or view our portfolio for examples of our work.

"We had been searching for a web site designer for a while and yet no one offered us the service we were after, as we were reluctant to part with a large sum of money before actually seeing some work done, and seeing what was possible. ANXT were extremely helpful as they were willing to guide us through the whole process and give us precisely what we wanted every step of the way. I was also most impressed with the speed at which everything happened. They always seemed to be on hand to help us out whenever we ran into difficulties. It was altogether an efficient and professional service.

Thanks for the great site; I look forward to years of service in your hands.

Kind Regards,
Francis Lincoln"

We aim to offer a complete print solution whatever your requirements maybe.
